PRESENT:

The Honourable Mr. HART, in the Chair.
Mr. PEARSON.
Mr. MAITLAND.
Mr. GRAY.
Mr. MACDONALD.
Mr. CARSON.
Mr. PERRY.

To His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

THE undersigned has the honour to report that old-age pensions are at present paid to the persons and under the conditions specified in regulations made pursuant to the provisions of the Dominion "Old Age Pensions Act" (R.S.C. 1927, chapter 156, as amended by 21-22 George V., chapter 42, and by 1 George VI., chapter 13), and approved by Orders in Council P.C. 1-3050 of December 9th, 1937; P.C. 250 of February 3rd, 1938; P.C.

2029 of July 27th, 1939; P.C. 14-2057 of March 16th, 1942; and P.C. 9-3183 of April 21st, 1942:

And that by Order in Council P.C. 19/2590, approved on March 31st, 1943, the said regulations were further amended by the deletion of regulation No. 18, and substitution therefor of the following:—

"18. (a.) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this regulation, where an applicant is one of two spouses living together his or her income shall be taken to be equal to one-half of the sum of the incomes calculated as in the Act and these regulations provided (excluding any pension payable to the spouse under the Act) receivable by each of them separately.

"(b.) Where an applicant for an old-age pension is married to and living with a spouse not in receipt of pension under the Act, the income of the applicant shall be taken to be equal to the sum of their joint incomes calculated as in the Act and these regulations provided, less the sum of three hundred and sixty-five dollars.

"(c.) Where an applicant for a pension in respect of blindness is married to and living with a spouse not in receipt of a pension in respect of blindness under the Act, the income of the applicant shall be taken to be equal to the sum of their joint incomes calculated as in the Act and these regulations provided (including any old-age pension payable to the spouse), less the sum of one hundred and sixty-five dollars."

And to recommend that, pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of the "Old-age Pension Act," chapter 208, R.S.B.C. 1936, the said amendment be approved, and that the payment of old-age pensions as from the date of the coming into force of said amendment be made to the persons and under the conditions specified in the said regulations as amended in the manner above set forth.

And that a certified copy of this minute, if approved, be forwarded to the Deputy Minister of Finance, Department of Finance, Ottawa.

Dated this 9th day of April, A.D. 1943.

GEO. S. PEARSON,
Provincial Secretary.

Approved this 9th day of April, A.D. 1943.

(g.) To engage in and carry on the business of buying and selling real property and any estate or interest therein or appurtenant thereto as principal and agent:

(h.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and to apply for and obtain water rights or water licences pursuant to the provisions of the "Water Act," R.S.B.C. 1936, chapter 305, and amendments thereto, and to do all things which a company specially incorporated for such purpose might do under the provisions of the said "Water Act":

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands of any description, and any estate or interest therein, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by subdividing lands and preparing building-sites, and by constructing and improving roads, streets, and lanes, and by constructing sewers and water service and any other desirable conveniences connected therewith:

(j.) To carry on the business of structural steel-workers, iron-founders, steel fabricators, and manufacturers of machinery of every description whatsoever, including, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, tool-makers, brass-founders, metal-workers, boiler-makers, engine-makers, pump-makers, manufacturers of aeroplanes and airships and motor-vehicles, millwrights, machinists, iron and steel converters, smelters, smiths, wood-workers, builders, painters, metallurgists, electricians, gas-makers, carriers and merchants, and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in machinery, implements, rolling-stock, and hardware of all kinds:

(k.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of bricks, tiles, pipes, pottery, earthenware, china, and terra-cotta, and ceramic ware of all kinds, and of paviors and manufacturers of and dealers in artificial stone, whether for building, paving, or other purposes:

(l.) To engage in the business of manufacturing chemists in all its branches:

(m.) To construct, maintain, and operate single- or double-track of aerial or other tramways, with the necessary side-tracks and turn-outs for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highways, roads, streets, bridges, which are in the line of the tramway intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway:

(n.) To take, transfer, and carry passengers, merchandise, and goods of all kinds on the tramway by any motive power now used or that may be afterwards discovered:

(o.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels, and to carry on the business of towing, freighting, and lightering, and of the conveyance of passengers, and of carriers by land and water, scow-owners, barge-owners, dredge-owners, shipping agents and forwarding agents, warehousemen and wharfingers:

(p.) To manage, develop, advance on, sell, or otherwise deal with or dispose of any interest, option, or rights in and over concessions, grants, lands, leases, and any real or personal estate or property of every description, and to work and develop the resources of and turn the same to account in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by reclaiming, clearing, draining, ditching, irrigating, paving, fencing, planting, building, letting on lease, farming, grazing, and reforesting, and by the establishment of experimental plots or farms or otherwise on any terms or system that may be considered advisable:

(q.) To stock the said lands, and to breed, grow, and deal in all kinds of live stock, cattle, sheep, and farm, orchard, and garden produce:

(r.) To own, purchase, construct, build, and operate hotels, boarding-houses, rooming-houses, dwelling-houses, and other structures, and to let out the same on hire, and to collect the rents for same, and to own, acquire, and operate wholesale and retail stores, and to carry on a general agency and commission business:

(s.) To carry on the business of general contractors for public and other works:

(t.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(u.) To open and keep a register or registers of members in any part or parts of the British Empire or in any foreign country or countries, and to allocate any number of the shares in the Company to such register or registers.

"COMPANIES ACT."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered pursuant to the "Companies Act" an office copy of an order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Sidney Smith, dated the 26th day of March, 1943, confirming wholly a special resolution of the Dominion Oil Company, Limited, for the alteration of the objects of the Company, and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

The objects of the Company have been extended by the addition of the following clauses:—

"(b.) 1. To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in and with all kinds of devices and machinery related in any manner whatsoever with the development, mining, improving, handling, drilling, pumping, storing, and refining of oil, its products, or any products of any of its properties; also to manufacture, prepare for market, transport, import, export, deal in and with any article or product of any kind or nature whatsoever, hereby intending to acquire by purchase or manufacture, or otherwise all supplies and materials necessary or convenient for use in accomplishing the objects herein mentioned:

"(b.) 2. To carry on the business of transporting petroleum and other mineral oils, gases, and the products thereof by means of pipe-lines and other means of conveyance and transportation, including ships and other vessels, aircraft, cars, wagons, and other vehicles, and to carry on such business as is, directly or indirectly, incidental to such transportation or which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by this Company in connection therewith, or which is calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of this Company's assets, property, and rights:

"(b.) 3. To buy and sell oil of every description and every product thereof, and packages and cases for holding the same, and to contract for, distribute, market, and deal in the same in any manner which may be convenient, and to carry on all or any of the businesses of purchasing, producing, refining, storage, transport, supply, and distribution of every description of petroleum and petroleum products, and also the business of forwarding agents or warehousemen, or any other trade or business whatsoever which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by the Company in connection therewith or with the general business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's assets, property, or rights:

"(i.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

"(j.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works, and supply and utilize water under the 'Water Act' or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor, or as an extension thereof:

"(k.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

"(l.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose to which electricity may be applied:

"(m.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

"(n.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

"(o.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

"(p.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the good-will, trade-marks, trade-names, and all other rights and interests in or pertaining to any business whatever, and to conduct, control, and manage the same, and to assume, entirely or in part, the payment of the debts and liabilities of any person, firm, association, company, or corporation, and to pay for the properties, assets, and rights of any such person, firm, association, company, or corporation in cash, stock of this Company, or with its bonds, or with the stock or bonds of other companies, corporations, persons, firms, or associations, or with other property or otherwise:

"(q.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

"(r.) To carry passengers, goods, and wares of every kind on any of the ships, vessels, aircraft, cars, wagons, scows, barges, and other conveyances and means of conveyance of the Company between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods, and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company:

"(s.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause, or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred, shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause."

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
